“Amazing”

Chinggis Khan, great
King of Mongolia,
King of the world and
King of the millennium

The white banner of Chinggis Khan represent symbolizes peace.

The 40m 13th Century monument complex Chinggis Khan is the biggest in the world.

Place: TERLJ-GORKHI, 80 km from Mongolia's capital city, Ulaanbaatar. The Gorkhi Terlj National Prk has enjoyed State protection since 1993. At 1600m, the area is cool and the alpine scenery magnificent. There are great opportunities for hiking, horse riding and many rock formations for rock climbers. Since 1990 MNMF has organised the National Rock Climbing Championships here. The Gorkhi Mountains are rich in wildlife. Fascinating rock formations, dating back to the Mesozoic era, edelweiss and a dazzling variety of other wild flowers, and the sparkling waters of the rivers, are the reason why the locals call this place "The museum of natural welath". The rocks have been mined here for over 100 years.

Message from the organisers:

"It will be a very good opportunity for our youth to see the stronger climbers in action. Also for them and visitors, it will be good to open new routes in Mongolia, and to be allowed to name the route as the first ascentionist."
